

Philemon Handout #10

vv. 19-22

Paralepsis

Structure

19—I Paul write (you)

In the Lord (20)

Refresh my heart (20)

In Christ (20)

21—I (Paul) write you

22—your prayers (for me)

Narrative sequence:

v. 19—

v.20—

v. 21—

v. 22—

v. 19—“my hand” (cf. 1 Cor 16:21; Gal 6:11; 2 Thess 3:17)

“pay it” (NASB)

How great was Philemon’s debt to Paul?

Why? (Acts 19:9-10)

School of Tyrannus

Paul: “you owe me _____. Now, I am taking _____’s debt.”

Thus, _____

Respond: Paul is being “heavy-handed” here!

v. 20—reiteration of ? _____

What terms are repeated from previous verses in this letter?

_____

_____

Pun: “playful pluck” (J. Nordling); or playfully puckish pun (J. Dennison)

“You will be _____ (Greek, ovnai,mhn/. cf. VOnh,simon, v. 10) _____”

v. 21—“more”. What “more”?

Paul did not _____; but here are the narrative and rhetorical vectors which led to the demise of slavery in Christian circles.

v. 22—? Apostolic Parousia